

The Vault Is Not Enough

AGENT BALE

---

Act 2 Scene 3
GCF

The world is ending, at least as everyone knows it. With the Resonance Virus running rampant among the population and having developed an immunity to earlier cures, an assortment of the elite and those who happened to be near them at the time have been herded into bunkers across the nation. At one such bunker, scientists who were involved in the Resonance Project have been working around the clock on a new cure. As the hospital ward in the underground bunker is sealed, all anyone can pray for is that they will be among those who survive this apocalypse.

They say it's the end of the world out there. But as long as there is a United States, all is not lost.

The United States must endure. For this, the system must be upheld. POTUS must be kept safe to keep the system running. You must locate POTUS and establish security. Failing that, you must identify those present in the line of succession. They must be defended and the proper chain of command enforced. If there is any hope for the United States to restore itself to some kind of order, the structure of authority must be maintained. Under no circumstances will you allow this protocol to be violated.

Others may lose their heads, but not you. You are trained that risk to life and limb is secondary in the face of threats to that which keeps the nation secure. You cannot allow the structures that hold the nation together to crumble. Without the nation, all else is chaos. Only then will the world truly be lost.
