

The Vault Is Not Enough

ATTACHE BYRNE

---

Act 2 Scene 3
GAC

The world is ending, at least as everyone knows it. With the Resonance Virus running rampant among the population and having developed an immunity to earlier cures, an assortment of the elite and those who happened to be near them at the time have been herded into bunkers across the nation. At one such bunker, scientists who were involved in the Resonance Project have been working around the clock on a new cure. As the hospital ward in the underground bunker is sealed, all anyone can pray for is that they will be among those who survive this apocalypse.

Yes, sir. Yes, sir. No, sir. Get into the van, sir. NOW, sir.

Whew! You and General Markoff are finally here, and not a moment too soon. When you got the call that the Resonance emergency protocol had been activated, Markoff was on the phone chewing out some poor sap in Finance (one of the General's favorite activities), and you had to unplug the phone. This, of course, focused all his rage on you, so getting Markoff out of the building was a real chore.

But you are finally here, at the quarantine bunker. Resonance has been released into the world, and it has reached pandemic proportions. You don't know how, or who let it happen, or what the details are. Nobody tells you these things, you're just a toady. But the unthinkable has occurred.

But it's okay. You're here, safe. Markoff is here. The most important people in the United States are here. Everyone is going to be safe, and everything is going to be fine. Everyone is going to be safe, and everything is going to be fine. Everyone is going to be safe, and you're just going to have to keep telling yourself that.
